

The membership of the Pittsburgh Surgical Society pay dues to this organization in order to receive notices regarding meetings and other items of interest. They have provided their email addresses so that they may receive notices in the most expeditious manner possible.